

Child Support Terminology

CSE - Child Support Enforcement

Obligee – a person who is the custodial party to whom child support is owed to.

Obligor – a person who has a duty/obligation to pay child support.

NCP (Non-Custodial Party) – the person who is not physically caring for the child(ren) on the child support case.

CP (Custodial Party)- the person who is physically caring for the child. (Custodial parties can be mom, dad, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, friends, an older sibling, etc)

Petitioner- the party who is requesting court action in regards to child support

Respondent – the party whom has to answer to the court action

FSR (Family Support Registry) – the payment processing center or clearing house used for all child support payments in the state of Colorado.

NDI (Non Disclosure of Information) – available to applicants who believe the disclosure of certain personal information on pleadings and other court-filed documents may cause the applicant or applicant's children to be at a health or safety risk because of previous or current acts or threats by the other party in the child support case.

 Child Support Enforcement Unit will never share your date of birth, social security number, address and phone number regardless of Non Disclosure of Information being requested or not.