Part I

Section 3

Board of Adjustments
PART I, SECTION 3: BOARD OF ADJUSTMENTS

A. INTENT

The purpose of the Board of Adjustments hereby created, shall be to provide for, in appropriate cases and subject to additional conditions and safeguards, the ability to make special exceptions to the terms of the Elbert County Zoning Regulations in conformance with its general purpose and intent.

B. POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF ADJUSTMENTS

The Board of Adjustments has the following powers:

1. To hear and act upon requests for a variance to the:
   a. Minimum area of lot;
   b. Minimum width of lot;
   c. Maximum height of structures and fences;
   d. Minimum front yard;
   e. Minimum side yard;
   f. Minimum rear yard;
   g. Minimum off-street parking requirements; and/or
   h. Such variances as may be deemed necessary by the Board of County Commissioners where, by reason of exceptional shape, size, topography of the lot, condition of the building or land, practical difficulty or unnecessary hardship would result to the owner of said property from a strict application or enforcement of the Elbert County Zoning Regulations.

2. The concurring vote of four (4) members of the Board of Adjustment shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision or determination of any such administrative official or agency, or to decide in the favor of the appellant.

3. No variance shall be granted by the Board of Adjustments when, in the opinion of said Board, the applicant has not provided reasonable and adequate evidence justifying the request presented, or when the request is determined to be a self-imposed hardship which can be rectified by means other than a variance.

C. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. The Board of County Commissioners of Elbert County shall appoint a Board of Adjustments consisting of five (5) voting members. Not more than half of the members of such Board may at any time be members of the Planning Commission. Each of the members of the Board of Adjustments shall be a resident of the County. The term of appointed members of the Board of Adjustments shall be three (3) years and until their respective successors have been appointed. The terms of office shall be staggered by making the appointments so that at least one (1) member’s term will expire each year.
2. The Board of County Commissioners may appoint two (2) associate members to the Board of Adjustments. Each associate member shall be a resident of the County. In the event that any regular member of the Board of Adjustments is temporarily unable to act, due to absence from the County, illness, interest in a matter before the Board of Adjustments, or any other cause, that member's place may be taken during such temporary disability by the most senior associate member present based upon length of service.

3. Any member of the Board of Adjustments may be removed for non-performance of duty or misconduct by the Board of County Commissioners. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as in the case of original appointments.

4. The Board of Adjustments shall receive reasonable compensation by Elbert County not to exceed thirty dollars ($30.00) per meeting plus mileage for attending official and special meetings.

5. The Board of Adjustments shall elect from its members a Chairperson and a Vice-Chairperson whose term shall be for one (1) year. Other positions may be created by the Board of Adjustments when needed.

6. The Board of Adjustments shall adopt such rules and regulations governing its proceedings as it may consider necessary or advisable, such rules and regulations shall be consistent with the guidelines of this Section and appropriate State statutes.

7. The Board of Adjustments shall meet as often as necessary to hear and act upon applications and other appropriate requests submitted.

8. The Board of Adjustments may call special meetings for special projects and other important topics for review, discussion and/or recommendation. Alternate hearing dates due to weather conditions and other scheduling difficulties may be considered by the Chairman of the Board of Adjustments.

9. A secretary shall be provided by Community and Development Services to the Board of Adjustments and shall be present at all regular and special meetings of the Board of Adjustments. The minutes shall be made a matter of public record within a practical time after the official meeting of the Board of Adjustments and will be available at Community and Development Services. Anyone wishing to have a transcript of the proceedings may have a court reporter present at their own expense.

D. PROCEDURE FOR A VARIANCE

1. The applicant shall discuss the variance request informally with the Community and Development Services Director to learn what materials and what steps are necessary for the application.
2. A formal application shall be submitted to the Community and Development Services Director and shall consist of the following:

a. A completed application form;
b. Proof of ownership of the land on which the appeal is requested;
c. Application fee - see current fee schedule; and
d. If applicable, a site plan indicating what the variance is or where it will be on the affected property. Such plan shall be drawn to scale and include the height and setbacks of all existing and proposed structures, and any other information requested by the Community and Development Services Director, when applicable to the request.

3. Community and Development Services Staff shall review the variance application within ten (10) working days and schedule the request before the Board of Adjustments when it determines that the application is complete.

4. A Community and Development Services Planner shall submit the application to the appropriate referral agencies for review. The prescribed time limits for review of a variance application shall not exceed thirty (30) days.

5. At least thirty (30) days prior to a public hearing before the Board of Adjustments, notice of hearing shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Elbert County at least once. Publication of said notice shall be the responsibility of the applicant and shall read as follows:

E. ADMINISTRATIVE VARIANCE

The Community and Development Services Director, or person designated from Community and Development Services by the Community and Development Services Director, shall have the ability to grant an Administrative Variance.

Per Resolution 94-252, approved December 21, 1994, the Administrative Variance provisions shall be invoked only in cases where the applicant can demonstrate that their request is minor in nature and meets the threshold/criteria established below and within Part I, Section 3 (E).

1. The Community and Development Services director may grant an Administrative Variance, upon prior approval by the Board of County Commissioners, for those items listed in Part I, Section 3(B)(1)a, et seq., where the total encroachment/adjustment does not exceed 15%. If the Board of County Commissioners recommends that an applicant proceed through the discretionary variance process, this Administrative Variance procedure shall not be used.

2. A decision by the Community and Development Services director to deny such Administrative Variance request may be appealed to the Board of Adjustments in accordance with Part I, Section 3(E)(g) of the Zoning Regulations.

1. Procedure

a. The applicant shall discuss the variance request informally with Community and Development Services to learn what materials and what steps are necessary for the application:

b. A formal application shall be submitted to Community and Development Services and shall consist of the following:

1) Completed application form.
2) Proof of ownership of the land on which the appeal is requested.
3) Application fee - see current fee schedule.
4) A site plan indicating what the variance is and where it will be on the affected property. Such plan shall be drawn to scale and include the height and setbacks of all existing and proposed structures.
5) Any other information Community and Development Services may deem necessary.

c. Community and Development Services shall review the variance application and conduct a site inspection within ten (10) working days.
d. Upon receiving notification by Community and Development Services that the application is complete, the applicant shall mail the following notice by certified return receipt mail to owners of property adjacent to, and within thirteen hundred twenty feet (1320'), of the property and to the mineral right's owners and lessees and easement holders, as shown in the records of the Office of the Elbert County Assessor. The notice shall be mailed at least fifteen (15) days prior to the action date.
e. As part of the administrative variance process, all work on the structure(s) involved must cease immediately. Failure to stop building will result in an automatic denial of the administrative variance.
